SUPPORT RELIEF AND MERCY EFFORTS FOR

Puerto Rico hurricane victims

The utter devastation in Puerto Rico calls to mind the caring Christians who give so graciously, ensuring Christ's mercy comes swiftly to those affected by catastrophe. The kindness being shown across the Synod has brought relief to so many, and now the people of Puerto Rico can experience that mercy, kindness and compassion.

Prayer:

Eternal Father, You warn us of the wrath to come through whirlwind, earthquake and fire, but reveal Your mercy in sparing the lives of those so afflicted and through Your salvation in the Word of Christ. Open our hearts to love our neighbors as You have loved us in Your Son; put our hands to works of mercy and our mouths to speaking Your saving truth; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Receiving Communion

We want you to commune with us! But it is essential that we share the same confession about the Lord's Supper. We regard receiving the Sacrament of the Altar in our church to mean that you agree with our church body's doctrine regarding the Lord's Supper. so that we may have a unified confession of doctrine as we gather at the Lord's Table together, we ask that all those who commune with us confess that:

- 1) the broken body and shed blood of Christ is truly, bodily present in the bread and wine
- 2) that this Holy Feast is given by Christ to his church for the forgiveness of our sins

If this is your confession, and you have been baptized, we invite you to partake with us, but we ask that our guests first speak with the Pastor prior to the service about receiving the Lord's Supper. If this is not your confession, we respectfully ask that you refrain from taking the Sacrament at this time. You are encouraged to speak with the Pastor about registering for instruction in the Lutheran faith, which prepares one for an informed participation in the Sacrament.
